

Parent's Night Out - Let's Talk: Spring 2010

Hear from experienced parents and teachers -

-bring home ideas to rediscover the joy in parenting.

The Children's Farm School Classroom

7:30 to 9:00 pm

CHILDREN IN A MEDIA FILLED WORLD

Do you feel like you don't have control over what is entering your child's world? Come hear research on the impact media can have on our children's lives and discuss suggestions and ideas for what we, as parents, can do about it. (J. Hanlon)

Thursday, April 22

PARENTING: IT'S NOT ABOUT DISCIPLINE....IT'S ABOUT RELATIONSHIPS

A new look at evaluating our parenting goals and comparing them to the roles we play as parents. Ideas for keeping your eye on the big picture as we deal with the day to day challenges of parenting. Parent discussion encouraged. (N. Jones)

Monday, April 26

CHALLENGES AND BIG JOBS

What every child needs: Practical ways to provide these for your children. The "Why's" and "How's" to boost confidence, competence and caring in our young children. (N. Jones)

Thursday, April 29

PARENTING: IT'S NOT ABOUT DISCIPLINE....IT'S ABOUT LEARNING

Tried and true ways to teach and encourage positive behavior, plus "25 ways to say NO with love and respect." (N. Jones)

Thursday, May 6

Nancy Jones, M.S., and Jenny Hanlon, M. Ed., are both parents, early childhood teachers and parent educators. They share insights from research on child psychology and child development combined with years of teaching experience at the Children's Farm School.

To register for any class, complete form below and mail to:

Children's Farm, Box 278, Lake Elmo, MN 55042

Questions, call : (651)439-7745

Name _____

Address _____

phone _____

e-mail address (to receive confirmation by e-mail) _____

Class(es) _____

fee enclosed ($10 per night) _____